

School of Hoops 5v5 League Code of Conduct

Please note: Aside from the below, Body Zone's Facility-Wide Policies & Code of Conduct also apply.
Learn more here: <https://bodyzonesports.com/policies-code-of-conduct-guidelines/>

1. Coach/player misconduct and profanity will not be tolerated, and will be addressed with a warning by the league officials and/or league director. After a warning is issued, any following offense will be addressed with a technical foul.
2. Spectators are expected to behave appropriately and respectfully at all times. Any misconduct will be addressed with a warning. After a warning has been issued, following acts of misconduct will lead to an ejection.
3. League officials are expected to behave appropriately and professionally at all times. If it is deemed that an official is in not behaving in an appropriate or professional manner, it will be addressed with the league's assigner. If misconduct continues, that official will no longer officiate in the league.
4. Provocative, obnoxious, violent, or taunting behavior will not be tolerated by players, coaches, officials, or spectators. Any person in violation will be assessed a warning, followed by an ejection for the next violation. Any act of violence is subject to immediate ejection.
5. Body Zone policy on any ejection is that the person must immediately exit the building. If the individual refuses to leave, it is our policy that we contact the Spring Township police department.
6. Good sportsmanship should be practiced. If a game has been decided before the final buzzer, there should be no reckless play or taunting from the winning team. At a game's conclusion, it is expected that both teams line up and shake hands. Teams should win and lose gracefully.
7. Time before the game and intermissions are reserved for team shoot arounds. If you are not participating in the game, you are not permitted to shoot around.
8. Dribbling of basketballs is not permitted by spectators during game action.
9. Spectators are not permitted at the score table. This section is for School of Hoops staff only. Spectators are also not permitted to sit on a team's bench, as these are reserved for the teams only.
10. Parents/Spectators: please noet that you are responsible for the behavior of anyone associated with your group. Please be sure to see that everyone is behaving accordingly.
